GOP CHAIRMAN ADDRESSES 500 ON WEDNESDAY

Approximately 500 persons filled the Midway fire hall to capacity Wednesday evening to hear Republican State Chairman Craig Truax and County Chairman H. Earl Pitzer pledge that "the best people available will be placed in patronage jobs in the Scranton administration."

"We must avoid making the same mistakes the Democrats made in filling these jobs," Truax said. "We will do the right kind of job in government, and we think we can do a better job of choosing outstanding people than our opposition did."

LAUD COUNTIAN

Truax advised local Republicans to "put good candidates on your local tickets" for a solid foundation for the next elections. "Your township and county officials are representative of the party and we want the best people we can possibly get to lay the groundwork for future successes." He warned against the placement of poor candidates on the primary ticket.

"Adams County has been good to the Republican party," he added, "in raising money for the campaign and in working for the good candidates we had on the ticket." He commended Pitzer for "not only providing leadership in Adams County but for the work he did throughout the state."

BIG RESPONSIBILITY

He said: "The Republican party has a big responsibility to the governor and to the public. We will be held responsible for the accomplishments or failures of the administration at the next election," he warned. "We must back the governor in his program to make Pennsylvania a great state."

He said that job placement in Harrisburg "is a slow process" but promised that "we're going to do the job right."

Receivership Of PTC Is Ousted By Supreme Court

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Pennsylvania Supreme Court today threw out the receivership ordered for the Philadelphia Transportation Co., as a result of the transit strike here.

The 5-2 decision of the state's highest court came as negotiators for the company and the Transport Workers Union, AFL-CIO, sat down in Harrisburg in another bargaining session aimed at ending the 17-day-old strike of 5,600 operating employees.

Justices Herbert B. Cohen and Michael A. Musmanno dissented from the majority opinion.

EXTREME COLD FAILED TO BEAT OLD RECORDS

Although the coldest January day here in 28 years occurred this month, January weather went into the books today far short of setting record with its average temperatures.

This month was colder than last January but January of 1961 was considerably colder than the month ending today. Times weather station records show, January, 1961, had 23 inches of snow to help drop the temperatures.

The 9 below zero reading taken Tuesday morning was the coldest this winter, the coldest ever recorded here on that date and the chilliest January morning here since 1935 when there was a low reading of 12 below zero.

SCRANTON IS CRITICAL OF JFK ECONOMY

NEW YORK (AP)—Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania says the Kennedy administration passed up an opportunity to help the nation's economy in 1961. He said there was a need then to cut government spending and taxes and that the administration ignored this.

Scranton criticized administration fiscal policies Wednesday night at a Republican fund-raising dinner here. It was his first public appearance outside Pennsylvania since he was inaugurated more than two weeks ago.

The new Republican governor said:

"As a result of the administration's action, they piled up a deficit and the economy failed to rally with the strength it could have."

"Now, we are faced with the possibility of heavy tax cuts, badly needed, but without spending cuts, and the economy will surely suffer for it."

PRAISES ROCKEFELLER

Scranton, who has been mentioned among the possibilities for the Republican presidential nomination in 1964, praised New York Gov. Rockefeller, who has been mentioned as a potential nominee much longer and more widely.

Rockefeller, among the other speakers at the dinner, said the Republican Party is committed to individual initiative and supports the policy of fiscal integrity in government.

He said the GOP seeks to provide more jobs, education, housing and equal opportunity for urban centers.

DISSENSION TROUBLES PA. DEMOCRATS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Pennsylvania's Democratic party—the powerful political force that produced more than 300,000 vote majority for President Kennedy in this city alone—appears threatened today by growing dissension.

Focal point of what is apparently the widening rift in high echelons is U.S. Sen. Joseph S. Clark, who emerged from his re-election to a second term last November with the announced intention of reshaping the party image.

He said that in some places it was tainted with racketeer elements.

ASKS APOLOGY

That charge went largely ignored by party leaders, including Rep. William J. Green Jr., chairman of the Philadelphia City Democratic committee who is close to the White House.

But Green, who got most of the credit for the big Kennedy majority, broke his silence Wednesday and called on Clark to apologize for remarks he made last week about the city committee.

Clark had said the committee exerted an unwise if not illegal influence over city councilmen by following what Clark said was the practice of exacting contributions for the passage of legislation.

THREATENS LIBEL

A grand jury is currently looking into just such charges and Clark has been invited to appear.

"It is unfortunate that Sen. Clark has made irresponsible and unsubstantiated statements as a U.S. senator, a citizen and an attorney," said Green.

He called on Clark to apologize to those he has "impugned by his uncalled for remarks," especially the committee treasurer, Francis Smith.

Smith has threatened a libel suit if Clark does not retract the statements.

GOES WAY BACK

Bitterness between Clark and Green goes back to the days when Clark was mayor of Philadelphia. Green just a congressman and heir apparent to the city chairmanship.

But Green, who identifies himself as an organization man and likes to be regarded as a chairman of the board rather than a political boss, managed to maintain a unified front after he became chairman in 1955.

The party reached peak strength during the 1960 election, and, even when Green was overridden in his opposition to Richardson Dilworth as candidate for governor, he gave Dilworth his support.

Rescued during a 12-hour search of the rugged mountainous area were the aircraft's commander, Lt. Col. Donald Hayes, 39, Alta, Iowa; the copilot, Maj. Thomas J. McBride, 41, Panama City, Fla.; the navigator, Maj. Emil Goldbeck, 40, Roswell, N.M., and the radar operator, Lt. Col. Nicholas Horangic, 39.

Horangic told newsmen Wednesday night, "We went through routine ejection procedures when the command was given to bail out."

He said the plane was flying at about 34,000 feet and there hadn't been any previous difficulty.

Goldbeck was the most seriously injured of the survivors with back and pelvic injuries. He was found atop a 9,500-foot ridge. It took rescuers nearly two hours to bring him down on a stretcher of saplings and horse blankets.

Horangic, who suffered a fractured left elbow, cuts and bruises, walked about four miles to a rural home and got a ride to Mora.

"You couldn't have a Castro-like takeover," he added.

SCHOOL AUDIT REPORTS GIVEN

The results of the state audit of three-year-old accounts of the two independent school districts in Adams County, McSherrystown borough and Conewago Twp., were made public today by the office of the state auditor general, Thomas Z. Minehart.

The accounts audited were for the school year which ended in July, 1959.

In the case of McSherrystown, the state auditors found that the practice of signing checks in blank had been followed and recommended that the practice be stopped. There is a recommendation also that the school fund depository be required to furnish monthly statements and furnish a bond in compliance with school law. More complete records on expenditures also are recommended.

McSherrystown is the only school district in the county without a real estate school tax. It operates by sending its pupils on a tuition basis to nearby districts and its budget for the year covered by the audit was only a little over $15,000.

In the case of Conewago Twp., which operates its own elementary school, the state auditors recommended shifts of funds within the budget to comply with the school law. It was also recommended that the school fund depository be required to furnish collateral or a bond. More complete records in connection with disbursements also were suggested.

GOP CHAIRMAN

(Continued From Page 1) will be the principal speaker at the annual Lincoln Day Dinner to be held February 18 in the Gettysburg College dining hall. Tickets will be mailed to committee members within the next few days for sale in their districts.

Pitzer said there is an immediate need for applicants for jobs as typists, clerk-typists and stenographers, and asked committee members to recommend qualified personnel for these positions in Harrisburg. He pointed out that the applicant will be sponsored by the chairman, but that forms accompanying applications must be obtained from and signed by committee members before they are presented to Pitzer. Several hundred patronage jobs will be filled by Adams Countians within the next few weeks.

OPEN LOCAL OFFICE

The county chairman announced that an office has been opened in Room 50, Howard Johnson Motel, Steinwehr Ave., and is staffed by Mrs. Betty Fidler from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. daily. Job-seekers may obtain application and committee forms at the office and, Pitzer said,

Assemblyman Harry Ridinger pledged his full support "to making Scranton one of the greatest governors Pennsylvania ever had."

Pitzer introduced candidates for nomination at the primaries, and warned that "some of you are going to lose, and when you lose you get out and work for the party."

Candidates introduced were: For commissioner, Fred Ebersole and Ward Taylor; register and recorder, Carl Menchy and Wayne Cluck; district attorney, Gerald Walmer; associate judge, Clarence Deardorff; prothonotary, George Weaver; auditor, Ruth Frey and Eleanor Linebaugh.

TO REORGANIZE CLUB

Mrs. Earl Deily, president of the Adams County Council of Republican Women, reported that a membership campaign to enroll 500 women is under way. She said there are now over 400 women.

Pitzer emphatically urged committee members to "register new people who have moved into the area and the young people who have just become 21 years of age."

A motion was adopted to attempt to reorganize the Republican Club at the March meeting after Clark Spence reported that he is holding $140 for the club and asked about its disbursement.

In adjourning the meeting Pitzer announced that the Lincoln Day dinner would replace the February meeting of the organization.

Candidates introduced were: For commissioner, E. Donald Scott, Clarence J. Waybright, Harry F. Tion, Donald R. Bruce, Indiana Con-

Biesecker, Lance McCleaf, G. Edwin Motter, Fred Ebersole and Ward Taylor; register and recorder, Carl Menchy and Wayne Cluck; district attorney, Gerald Walmer; associate judge, Clarence Deardorff; prothonotary, George Weaver; auditor, Ruth Frey and Eleanor Linebaugh.

Weak-Shooting Bullets Have Seven-Game Streak Ended By F. And M. 49-47

An extremely poor shooting night resulted in Gettysburg College's seven-game winning streak being tossed into the fire as Franklin and Marshall outlasted the Bullets 47-47 Wednesday night before a capacity crowd of 1,300 fans in Lancaster.

The Bullets, ranked high in the nation in foul shooting and who have pulled in five decisions from charity tosses, went 11 for 25, losing three chances to overtake the Diplomats. Not only was Gettysburg off in foul shots, but also weak from the field landing but 18 of 63 attempts. Franklin and Marshall took advantage of several situations and were tough under the boards, outrebounding Gettysburg 57-50.

Victory-wise the Diplomats had something to boast about, but they also did not set the world afire with their shooting. Coach Woody Sponaule's Big Blue hit on only 16 of 52 field shots and 17 of 29 charity tosses. Franklin and Marshall is now 7-3 on the season while Gettysburg is 9-3.

Gettysburg ran into trouble from the very beginning when it netted only 15 points during the first 20 minutes. The Dips led 26-15 at intermission. To top things off, the Bullets switched but five goals, George Strouse connecting on two with Ted Koerner, Doug Kepner and Don Szegda collecting the other three. Koerner and Szegda scored their goals early in the game with Koerner adding a free throw to give Gettysburg a 5-4 lead after the first five minutes. Two minutes later, sharp shooter Jim Leslie rammed through a pair of two-pointers to give F. and M. and 8-5 advantage. From that point the Diplomats clung to the lead until 7:08 of the second half.

GBURG SPURTS

The Bullets trailed by as much as 13 points. With the count 35-23 at 11:51 of the second half, the Bullets looked as if they might change the outlook completely. Szegda and Strouse hit on two quick jump shots and Gaeckler came through with a trio of fast lay-ups to cut the Dips margin to 35-33. Gerry Huber added a rebound for the host club but Koerner clicked on a three-point play and Strouse capitalized on a steal and the Bullets led 36-37.

With 4:49 remaining, Szegda gave the Bullets their last look at the bright side of the scoreboard as the count stood 40-40. Leslie hit on the jumpers while Huber and Steven Risen converted charity tosses. During the last four minutes Gettysburg had many golden opportunities to turn the tide from the foul line but it just wasn't their night.

Leslie was the game's leading scorer with 19 counters while Huber helped out with his 15 rebounds. Koerner, Gaeckler and Strouse topped the Bullets with 13, 12 and 11, respectively. Gaeckler had a good night on the boards with 16 rebounds.

FROSH WIN 8TH

The Gettysburg Freshmen had a tough time getting started, but managed to come through and cop the preliminary 55-40 over the Diplomat yearlings. Dave Yates recorded 15 tallies for the Little Bullets while Fred Nier topped the Dips with nine. Chuck Richardson turned in a fine performance for Gettysburg, hitting for eleven points and grabbing 15 rebounds.

The Gettysburg varsity will have its work cut out for it when it attempts to rebound from the loss by entertaining powerful Westminster Friday night in the physical education building. The Bullet frosh (8-1) will meet York Junior College in the 6:45 preliminary.

RUPP IS A DIPLOMAT

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — University of Kentucky basketball Coach Adolph Rupp isn't shy about commenting on his team, but he won't name the greatest player he's coached during his 32-year career. "I'd just make one boy happy and hurt the feelings of a lot of other great ones that have played for me," he says.

RED WINGS IN RACE FOR TITLE

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Gordie Howe, an old hand at winning National Hockey League scoring championships, has projected himself right in the thick of the race in triggering 1962 performances.

Big Don, 26, becomes the highest paid pitcher in Dodge history after signing his 1963 contract calling for about $46,000. Davis, 23, agreed to terms calling for about $25,000.

Drysdale won the Cy Young Award as baseball's outstanding pitcher. He won the most games in the majors, 25, and his 232 strikeouts also were tops. Davis, the National League's leading batsman with a .346 average, led the majors in runs batted in with 153 and hits with 230.

The victory, in the only game played, enabled Detroit to move to within three points of Toronto and Montreal, tied for second, and five points of league-leading Chicago. The fourth-place Wings also pulled away from the fifth-place Rangers, opening up a 16-point bulge over New York.

Howe, a four-time scoring leader, collected three points, giving him 49 for the season. This placed him just one point behind the co-leaders, Frank Mahovlich of Toronto and Johnny Bucyk of Boston.

DENIES RUMOR ON NEW TRACK

HARRISBURG (AP)—Lawrence B. Sheppard, chairman of the State Harness Racing Commission, denied a report Wednesday night that approval has been granted for a multi-million dollar track near Wilkes-Barre.

Sheppard said the site, located in Plains Township, was the third location on which Anthracite Raceway, Inc., had planned to build. He said the new location was before the commission for consideration.

"Any site change has to be approved by the commission," he said, "and up to now it has not been."

The commission earlier granted a license to Anthracite on the first site for its proposed raceway—"Pocono Downs"—which originally was to be built in the Hazle area.

An announcement by Anthracite directors Wednesday said that they have received the commission's approval to go ahead with plans to build near Wilkes-Barre. They said arrangements were made to purchase about 400 acres of land, most of which is owned by the Glen Alden Coal Co.

CINCINNATI TO MEET LOWLY DRAKE TONIGHT

By BOB GREEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

Comes now Drake, full of high hopes and dim prospects.

The Bulldogs, who have won only once in the Missouri Valley Conference this season, face the grim task of attempting to sidetrack Cincinnati's mighty Bearcats tonight in the top game on the nation's college basketball schedule.

The only other major undefeated teams in the country—Loyola of Chicago and Niagara—also put their perfect records on the line with only Niagara anticipating major difficulties.

TOPS ARE FAVORITES

Niagara, with a 9-0 season record, heads into the heavy part of its schedule against rebounding Georgetown, D.C., tonight and follows against tough Providence. Georgetown sports only an 8-5 mark, but has won its last six.

Cincinnati and Chicago Loyola, ranked 1-2 in the country, are heavy favorites over Drake and Washington of St. Louis, respectively.

Another key game pits Wake Forest against South Carolina. The Deacons will be seeking sole control of the top spot in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

FLORIDA ROUTED

Wake moved into a share of the ACC lead Saturday night on the strength of a 79-70 triumph over North Carolina State. It boosted York's season record to 9-4, but 7-0 in the conference.

West Virginia's brilliant combination of Rod Thorn and Jim McCormick led the Mountaineers to a 114-67 rout of Florida, snapping a two-game West Virginia losing string. The Mountaineers now are 13-5 for the season.

Detroit blew all but one point of a 16-point lead, then recovered in time to upset Michigan 83-70.

The broadcasts will be sponsored by the Atlantic Refining Company, Ballantine Beer, Tastykake and Camel cigarettes.

Wills Wins Another Trophy

Maury Wills, master of stolen bases, holds the latest trophy he has received: The outstanding achievement award of the Van Heusen Company, presented to the Los Angeles Dodger shortstop in New York. Wills set a record stealing 42 bases during the 1962 season and playoff series. With him at the awards luncheon are Washington pitcher, Tom Cheney, left, runner-up to Wills, and Cincinnati slugger Frank Robinson, who was third. (AP Wirephoto)

G-BURG FROSH TROUNCE YJC MATMEN 27-5

The Gettysburg College freshman wrestling team got back into the winning column by blanking York Junior College 27-5 Wednesday evening in the physical education building before a large crowd.

Al Mitterling got the Little Bullets off to 5-0 decision by winning a forfeit in the 123-pound class. Joe McDonnell gave the winners their second five-point pin or a third period pin over Larry Raab in the 137-pound class.

The lone Gettysburg loss came in the 177 when Bill Stough pinned Bob Hill in 2:13 of the second period.

Coach Ray Reider's squad, 3-1 on the season, will tangle with the Muhlenberg reserves Saturday afternoon in Allentown. The bout will serve as a preliminary to the varsity tilt.

The results:

123—Al Mitterling, G, won by forfeit; 130—Sam Taylor, G, decision; 137—Joe O'Donnell, G, pinned Larry Raab, 7:41; 147—Joe Bavaro, G, decision; Greg Brennan, 6:1; 157—Steve Baumann, G, decision; George Cunningham, 7:56; 167—Toby Mullin, G, decision; Dan Hawbaker, 4:0; 177—Bill Stough, YJC, pinned Bob Hill, 5:13; 190—Larry Kline, G, decision.

During the past two years, residents of Frederick have now agreed to 1963 terms.

President-General Manager Lee MacPhail announced today, upon receipt of signed contracts from Bob Saverine and catchers Andy Etchebarren and Larry Haney, all "home grown" products of the Oriole farm system.

For Saverine, the 21-year old speedster who played at Rochester last year, training with the big league is no longer a novelty.

This will be his fourth spring in Miami, but it is the first time he has been conceded a good chance to make the club after cutdown.

Heaney, 20, and Etchebarren, 19, are considered to have more big league potential than any of the backstops in the Oriole minor league system. However, both need additional experience in the minors before they make the big jump. Haney hit .236 in the Class C California League last year with 77 rbi in 123 games, while Etchebarren playing at the Class A level (Eastern League) was a .219 hitter in 86 games. Both played at Clearwater in the Florida Instructional League.

LONDON (AP) — Britain took the first tentative steps today in a drive to strengthen its world trade and rebuild its flagging economy out of the wreckage of its Common Market hopes.

The editorial described the TV salesman heavy as polished, poised, suave and well-dressed.

The remedy editor Philip Salisbury suggests the one that other offended groups have used: Write complaining letters — to managers of stations that show the programs, with carbons to program sponsors who just may have some salesmen of their own.

FLOOD OF CALLS

Merv Griffin's announcement on his afternoon program Wednesday that NBC has cancelled his show effective March 30 to be replaced by two soap operas resulted in such a flood of telephone calls from viewers that it tied up the switchboard completely at one point.

Griffin said earlier that although NBC has been holding conferences about his future, "nobody has been negotiating with us or talked about anything specific."

Meanwhile, there are reports that ABC and CBS are very interested in Griffin's future plans.

Recommended tonight: "George Gobel Presents," ABC, 10-11 (Eastern Standard Time). Filmed variety show on the "Premiere" series, and hopefully a preview of a next season series; "Andy Williams Show," NBC, 10-11; Lorne Greene and Dan Blocker of "Bonanza" are the guest stars.

Soil Conservation Setup In Armstrong

HARRISBURG (AP) — State Agriculture Secretary Leland H. Bull

says Armstrong County has been added to the list of soil conservation districts in Pennsylvania. County commissioners created the district to preserve natural resources, assist in flood control, prevent soil erosion and preserve the tax base, Bull said Wednesday.

He said all but six of the state's counties are conservation districts. Blair, Cameron, Delaware, Forest, Luzerne and Philadelphia Counties have not organized under the 8-year-old program.

The districts provide technical services to landowners to develop and water resources, Bull said. They also sponsor watershed improvement projects and coordinate conservation agencies.

Problems Plague Almost Every African Country

By MILTON BESSER

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — They shot down President Sylvanus Olympio in the streets of Lome, capital of Togo, and the spotlight centered on another troublespot in Africa.

Until the assassination in the predawn darkness of a quiet Sunday in January, Togo, a newly independent state about twice the size of Maryland, rarely got into the news.

It had been beset by unemployment and some of its political leaders were at odds with neighboring Ghana, Nigerian Foreign Minister Jaja Wachuku demanded a U.N. and African investigation. He said Nigeria had reports the slaying was a cold-blooded murder organized and directed outside Togo.

Events in the wake of the assassination thus demonstrated once again that there are many crosscurrents in Africa, and trouble in one place evokes reaction in another.

FACE MORE PROBLEMS

Problems of one kind or another plague almost every country on the African continent, where 29 countries have become independent since the end of World War II. More are on their way.

The foremost troublespot has been the Congo, which achieved its independence in July 1960, and appealed shortly for a U.N. army to maintain order.

With the end of the Katanga secession the United Nations hopes to be able to effect a military exodus. Political and economic problems of great magnitude remain, and the Congo's days of troubles are by no means at an end.

It is difficult to predict where unrest may flare next, but here are some other places to watch:

TENSION IS HIGH

Southern Rhodesia — Tension has been high in this part of the Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland where a vastly outnumbered white population is trying to maintain control. African nations have pushed through the U.N. general assembly resolutions calling on Britain to speed steps for independence.

Sir Roy Welensky, the federation's prime minister, is at odds with Britain. Winston J. Field, new prime minister of Southern Rhodesia, has freed some African political party members.

Katanga provided a kind of shield for Southern Rhodesia as long as Moise Tshombe was in power. There is concern now that pressures from African nationalists will grow.

DIPLOMATIC DISPUTE

Algeria-Tunisia—Premier Ahmed Ben Bella of Algeria and President Habib Bourguiba of Tunisia

29 African nations have achieved independence since World War II, 12 in the southern portion of the continent.

ETHIOPIA

FEDERATION OF RHODESIA AND NYASALAND

mands that Portugal set Angola on the road to independence.

REFUSE U.N. DEMANDS

South West Africa—South Africa has refused for years U.N. demands that its old league of nations mandate over southwest Africa be replaced by U.N. trusteeship as a forerunner to independence. At the last general assembly Secretary-General U Thant was requested to set up a U.N. presence in the vast sprawling area adjoining Angola.

South Africa—Determination of the south African government to maintain its policy of apartheid, or racial segregation, has resulted in bloody clashes with the predominantly nonwhite population. South Africa has ignored repeated U.N. demands that apartheid be abolished. At the last assembly the United Nations asked the security council to consider expulsion of South Africa if U.N. demands continue to be ignored. South Africa says its racial policies are its own business and any U.N. interference violates the U.N. charter.

IRON HAND RULE

Ghana — President Kwame Nkrumah rules this former British gold coast colony with an iron hand. Political opposition has been suppressed. Nkrumah, who calls himself Osagyefo, or redeemer, has been the target of assassination attempts. There has been talk of possible conflict with neighboring Togo.

Mauritania-Morocco — Morocco claims that Mauritania, a newly independent African nation, is part of Morocco. Negotiations have been under way to resolve the issue but it is not yet settled. King Hassan II of Morocco has economic and political problems—the latter complicated by opposition to his rule by both conservative and leftwing elements.

Senegal — Premier Mamadou Dia was overthrown in December in a power struggle with President Leopold Senghor. Supporters of Senghor charged Dia with failing to deal effectively with government corruption.

Kenya—This British colony is headed for independence under a newly appointed governor, Malcolm MacDonald. The government is striving to eliminate allegiance among some tribesmen to a guerrilla army known as the "land freedom army" which is threatening to take by force farms of white settlers.

BURNED TO DEATH

OIL CITY, Pa. (AP)—Henry Eakins was killed Wednesday night in a fire which destroyed two pet dogs and wrecked his home in nearby Goodman's Corners.

Firemen said a coal stove apparently started the blaze. Eakins, believed to have been in his late 60s, lived alone.

Dillsburg Man Is Shipley Successor

HARRISBURG (AP) — William O. Downs, 54, of Dillsburg R. 2, York County, will serve as acting state traffic safety commissioner until a new commissioner is named.

Downs, an administrative officer in the traffic safety bureau since 1958, succeeds O. D. Shipley who resigned last week. Shipley had cited what he called health reasons and political pressures as reasons for his decision to step down.

Illinois Gov. Otto Kerner, a Democrat serving his first term, doesn't hold with what he says is a tradition for freshmen legislators to be seen but not heard.

"There is a rule that when you are new you hold your peace and wait until you are called on," Kerner said at Springfield at the first of five dinners for new Illinois legislators. "I don't buy that. You are supposed to represent the people who elected you."

2 EXTENSIONS FOR MOTORISTS

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania motorists have until Feb. 15 to obtain their biennial drivers' licenses and submit their vehicles to the semiannual safety inspections.

The deadline in both cases originally was set for midnight tonight, but extensions were granted with the approval of Gov. Scranton.

In announcing the separate actions Wednesday, State Revenue Secretary Theodore B. Smith Jr. cited the Philadelphia transit strike and the exceptionally bad weather as reasons for the inspection delay.

Several legislators had called for an extension of the deadline on drivers' license renewals. They said many of their constituents had not received their licenses in the mail.

TROUBLES AT ROBENA MINE

UNIONTOWN, Pa. (AP)—U. S. Steel Corp. officials reportedly refused to meet with United Mine Workers representatives to discuss a work stoppage at the Robena coal mines, a UMW spokesman says.

The spokesman, who declined use of his name, made the comment Wednesday night.

The work stoppage began Tuesday when miners on the afternoon shift balked at going into the mines, owned by U. S. Steel near Carmichaels, in a dispute over the shift of a fan attendant.

John Ozanich, president of UMW Local 6321, said Tuesday night that a meeting between company and union officials had been set for Wednesday at the union's District 4 headquarters in Uniontown.

However, the company issued a statement Wednesday which said "contractual grievance procedure govern the handling of disputes" and "it is hoped and expected that the established procedures for handling disputes will be followed."

Surplus Property Plan Extended

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Property and Supplies Department says it plans to extend the federal surplus property distribution program to about 700 additional institutions and agencies in Pennsylvania.

The expansion will incorporate public libraries, schools for the physically handicapped and mentally retarded, and all educational radio and television stations licensed by the Federal Communications Commission.

State Property and Supplies Secretary Richard M. Hornbeck said Wednesday the program was extended under recent amendments to the federal property act.

Explorer I Keeps Orbiting Earth On Its 5th Birthday

By HOWARD BENEDICT

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — Explorer 1, the one-time chatterbox which discovered the Van Allen radiation belt, whirls silently around the earth today on its fifth birthday.

The 30.8-pound cylinder long ago lost its radio voice, but it reigns as the oldest man-made inhabitant in space. The two Soviet Sputniks which preceded it into orbit no longer are aloft.

Advancements have been spectacular since Explorer 1 placed the United States firmly in the space race with the Soviet Union on Jan. 31, 1958.

110 LAUNCHED

The United States has launched an almost unbelievable total of more than 110 successful satellites and deep space probes. Soviet scientists have sent up 31.

The Soviet Union's future plans are cloaked in secrecy. But the step-by-step U.S. program has been laid out clearly for the next decade.

America's major goal is to land astronauts on the moon before the Russians and to do it before 1970. A so-called ideal launching date of Jan. 14, 1967, at 3:34 p.m. Cape Canaveral time, has been considered as a potential goal for the Apollo lunar flight. If this date is met—and most planners doubt it will—Americans would be on the moon within 10 years after Explorer 1 shot into the sky.

MANY FACTORS

The ideal time is based on relative positions of the earth and moon; illumination conditions in the chosen landing area near the Sable Crater; predicted solar radiation activity, and expected readiness of a booster rocket, a capsule and numerous other ingredients.

Before the three-man Apollo team is moon-bound, a number of critical milestones must be passed, a number of problems solved.

To gain further experience in prolonged space flight, astronaut Leroy Gordon Cooper Jr. is scheduled to make what may be the final Project Mercury ride next April 2, an intended 34-hour mission.

GREAT DAY OF SURFING — Four surfing enthusiasts ride a big wave as a crowd watches from the shore at Redondo Beach, Calif. Huge breakers, the biggest in years, turned southern California beaches into a surfers' paradise that day.

by popular request. But just as frequent in the new collection picture are stark blacks, and shadowy blues and browns, once called fall tones.

Conditioned by the hidebound style rules of the past, women always expect to find wispy chiffon in summer and slinky crepes and wools in winter. But these seasonless designers are dishing up both for any kind of weather. They also serve up bulky tweeds and bushy woolens as often in June as they do in January.

The designers do give the fur rage a short reprieve, but not those other ingredients of the muffed look, scarves and stoles.

Ever since Jackie Kennedy started it, women have dutifully shivered in collarless, sleeveless shifts. And very often the necklines of their dresser dresses dipped daringly down to there.

Consequently, the spare, bare costumes in the new collections do not necessarily stamp them as for sunshine and the June moon glow.

The two extremes, bare and covered, are happily sharing fashion honors from one end of the year to the other.

FANCY THAT

Without spring whatever happens to a young man's fancy?

It never did hibernate scoff the designers. At least they, the couturiers, have done their part to stimulate a year 'round romantic spin by stitching into their garments such necessary ingredients as allure, femininity and mystery.

The femininity is always there, even when women spout men by stealing their jacket lapels and their derby hats. It figures especially however, in supple (not corseted or plastered) curves of this season's collection.

The allure is there with soft, fluttery fabrics. The mystery is managed by saris, or dinner gowns that drape lean bodies like Arabian sheiks.

If this sounds slightly like fall, or winter it is only because it is intended.

"We always were a kooky class," she said.

'Beep' System Cuts Telephoning Time

VICTORIA, B. C. (AP) — The "beeps" have done their duty and been retired.

But Provincial Works Minister William Chant warns they will be returned to the legislative building telephone system, if civil servants start talking too much again.

A machine sounding a "beep" every three minutes was installed in an attempt to cut down on the government's phone bill. The "beeps" reminded phone users to talk less on outside calls.

Chant says they worked.

Rain Dance Brings Drought Relief

BALTIMORE (AP) — As drought gripped her neighborhood, 6-year-old Kathie Scarborough assembled some other children and staged a rain dance. Rain began falling that night. As it still fell next morning, Kathie and her sister paraded beneath an umbrella carrying a sign which read: "The Indian rain dance worked!"

Kathie has an Indian name, Hatahee, bestowed on her in Tamagwa, Pa., by the last of the Talking Eagle. But she learned the rain dance in Bible school.

Kooky Class' Holds Another Gathering

BALTIMORE (AP) — The class of 1954 at Forest Park High School scheduled, of all things, an "Eight and One-Half Year Reunion."

Mrs. Henry Mann, reunion committee secretary, said the event would be celebrated with its exact fractional designation because many previous attempts to get together had failed.

"We always were a kooky class," she said.

STRONG TEAM SEEN WITHOUT FRENCH UNITY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some Democratic members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee expressed belief Wednesday that a strong Atlantic partnership can be formed without France.

They called the French veto of Great Britain's admission to the European Common Market a jolt to Western Europe's economic stability.

Most, however, agreed with Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, that "the temporary abdication of one member of the Western community, though deeply disappointing, is not fatal."

HAVE RESOURCES

While French illusions "run their course," Fulbright said in a statement, "the United States and its partners in Western Europe are not without resources to press ahead with the development of a strong Atlantic partnership."

"Anybody can reconsider a mistake," said Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore. "I hope De Gaulle will. If he does not, the alternative may be just to let the general go it alone in his defenses."

"We don't need to stay in Europe to protect the United States. They need us more than we need them."

SLEEPS DAYS, HUNTS NIGHTS

IRVINE, Ky. (AP) — "If I ever quit hunting, I would get stiffer than a two-by-four plank," says A. C. Treadaway, 68-year-old retired railroader and devoted coon hunter.

"I guess I would go hunting about every night if someone would go with me, but it's hard to find anyone who wants to go time for another hunt."

Treadaway, known more frequently as Gus, says that coon hunting can be pretty rugged, but admits it becomes relaxation of the best kind if you take it slow.

Back in his railroading days (he retired 15 years ago), he fought a daily temptation to forgo his job and just go hunting.

Now temptation has become merely invitation.

"Coon hunting is very enjoyable to me. . . . I can think of no other sport that could give me more pleasure and pleasant anticipation," he says.

He often takes his hound, Old Duke, into the rugged hill country around this Eastern Kentucky town and is gone most of the night. About midmorning, man and dog are home with a few raccoons.

Then Gus goes to bed, sleeping all day and often waking just in time for another hunt.

Pet Eagle Eats 12 Pounds Daily

STANHOPE, N.J. (AP) — When Wayne Day decided to befriend a baby eagle he found on the shore of Notre Dame Bay near here about two months ago, he didn't realize what he was getting into.

The eagle now has a wing spread of seven feet and keeps him busy feeding it up to 12 pounds of food a day.

Family Food Facts

Everyone who longed for "an old-fashioned winter" appears to be getting it but finding it rather costly, observes Tom Piper, Penn State extension marketing agent.

A respectable portion of that cost is reflected in your weekly food bill as reduced supplies and the hazards of shipping in cold weather force prices upward. Furthermore, much of the damage cannot be repaired with the arrival of warmer temperatures; injury to the citrus crop will influence market supplies through next summer and perhaps longer, depending upon the extent of tree injury.

Apples, D'Anjou pears and Empire grapes are considered best fruit buys. Bananas are being unloaded and supplies are approaching normal. Extremely cold weather hampers delivery as trucks must be heated to avoid low temperature injury. Some imported grapes and honeydew melons will be available shortly. Florida orange trees are producing new growth and will be especially susceptible to freeze injury until the end of the first week in March.

Cold weather damage and market speculation is responsible for higher prices on lettuce, cabbage and onions this weekend. Only potatoes, radishes, mushrooms, sweet potatoes and green beans may be considered in the better buy classification.

Cherries and peanut butter are important grocery items in plentiful supply. Canned corn, tomato products, fruit cocktail, peaches, tuna and sardines share this condition.

Retail meat promotions this week are built around popular cuts of beef and pork. Shoppers are encouraged to study the food ads for selecting a meat value as retailers generally tend to raise prices for most items not promoted. Chuck roasts of beef, pork loins and smoked hams will be promotionally priced in many area foodmarkets.

Don't bypass some cuts of meat because of the high cost per pound. Compare cuts on a cost-per-serving basis. For example, a chuck roast with bone, fat and waste will yield about 2½ servings per pound whereas a rump roast with little fat or waste will yield about four servings. According to our extension home economist, four ounces of lean meat is considered a serving. Thus, if a rump roast is selling for $1.09 a pound it will cost about 28 cents a serving. A chuck roast selling for 69 cents a pound will also cost about 28 cents a serving. So compare meat cuts on a cost-per-serving basis rather than cost-per-pound.

TROY, Pa. (AP) — Gerald Dickerson, 23, police chief of the Bradford County community of Troy Township, was killed Tuesday in a head-on collision at nearby Burlington. State police said Dickerson, an auto salesman besides serving as chief, was delivering a car to a customer at the time of the mishap. Officers said Ralph Carman, Jr., 17, Troy, swerved to avoid a car backing out of a driveway and crashed into Dickerson. Carman was in fair condition in Troy Community Hospital.

The POWER of FAITH

By WOODY ISHMAEL

The year was 1691. Father Eusebia Kino had already established missions along the river valleys of northern Mexico. He and visiting Father De Salvatierra were making a journey into the country north of his last mission.

In the valley of Bac, now Tucson, Ariz., the Sobaipuris Indians had heard rumors of the black robed man who carried a bright cross with a new powerful spirit. They too carried crosses hung with feathers.

Father Kino wrote in his journal, "It was our intention to turn back, but from the north some messengers of the Sobaipuris came to meet us with some crosses, which they gave us, kneeling with great veneration, and asking us on behalf of all their people to go to their rancherias also. The Father visitor said to me that those crosses which they carried were tongues that spoke volumes and with great force, and that we could not fail to go where by means of them they called us."

The Sobaipuris exchanged their crosses for the cross of the living faith of Christianity. Father Kino built a mission at Bac and named it after his own chosen patron, St. Francis Xavier. San Xavier Del Bac still stands today, actively serving man and God.

STROUDSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Leslie B. Carlton, 72, retired chief photographer of the Stroudsburg Daily Record, died Tuesday in Monroe County General Hospital. Carlton was a life member of the National Press Photographer's Association and a past president of the group's Scranton chapter.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Alfred M. Klein, chairman of the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission, leaves Friday for Mexico City to attend a meeting of boxing officials seeking unification of the sport's rules and standards. Klein said Tuesday he believes the convention, which opens Feb. 10, is one of its kind. It was instigated partly at his suggestion.

Devout Arkansan Has Perfect Record

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — W. B. Langford, 91, says he hasn't missed going to Sunday School a single Sunday since 1905.

Langford, a member of Jonesboro's First Baptist Church, is enthusiastically working on his 58th year. He commented, "I'm the happiest man in Arkansas."

He's been ill during those 57 years, but he went to Sunday School anyway. "One Sunday 40 years ago I was carried to Sunday School on a cot," he said.

Langford is a retired trustee and lifetime deacon of his church.

Pastor Defends Extremists

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Methodist authority on left and right-wing groups in religion, the Rev. Dr. Ralph Lord Roy of New York told a meeting here that "extremism is not always immoral or untrue."

It "depends on where we stand when we use it," he said. He recalled that American "extremists and radicals" have included Patrick Henry, Samuel Adams, Thomas Jefferson and that Jesus was an extremist himself in attacking the religious leaders of his day.

TO ASK PENNA. TO PAY DEBT

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Scranton has promised to ask the legislature to appropriate $143,651 to pay off a debt to the federal government.

The governor's office said Wednesday the debt covered a period between July 1, 1956, and March 30, 1959, and involved surplus food losses in Westmoreland County.

Former state Atty. G. David Stahl said in a memorandum on the case that state certifications for surplus food for the county were "grossly in excess" of the actual number of persons eligible.

State and federal investigations showed the improper certifications were made deliberately by county surplus food personnel and that some surplus food was illegally sold in the county, Stahl said.

The government claimed it lost $383,282 in the irregularities, but agreed to settle on a payment of $165,000.

The county paid $21,949, leaving the state with the remainder.

Air Force Frees Anderson After 10 Months In Prison

MOUNTAIN HOME, Idaho (AP) — Airman Gerald N. Anderson is a free man today after almost 10 months of confinement on charges of murder.

Now he wants out of the Air Force. His attorney has called for an investigation of the Air Force's treatment of Anderson, who was accused of killing the wife and son of a fellow airman.

RELEASED TUESDAY

In and out of military and civil jails since April, Anderson was released from the Mountain Home Air Force base stockade Tuesday.

Another man confessed to the murders in November. Civil authorities accepted the confession and released Anderson but the Air Force promptly arrested him and announced it would try him for the crimes.

Anderson, 25, had no criticism of Air Force personnel except the Office of Special Investigation agents who got him to sign a confession. But he said he hopes the Air Force will grant his request for an early discharge.

"I have a lot of people to thank," said Anderson, "but the biggest person I owe thanks to is God. I feel that without His help none of this would have been possible."

ORDERLY ROOM DUTY

The Air Force returned Anderson to duty, assigning him to orderly room duty. Before his arrest he was in a plane refueling crew.

Anderson was arrested by the Air Force last April 11, the day after the bodies of Nancy J. Johnson, 22, and her son Danny, 2, were discovered in their home. The Johnsons were neighbors of the Andersons. Mother and son had been stabbed and Mrs. Johnson had been raped.

Anderson signed a confession and was turned over to civil authorities. Later he repudiated the confession, saying it was obtained under duress.

In November, Theodore Thomas Dickie, 22, said in his jail cell at nearby Boise that he committed the double murder. Dickie was held for the rape slaying of a 10-year-old Boise girl.

The Air Force said Dickie's statement had many holes in it but earlier this month Dickie went before an Air Force hearing and reiterated his confession.

Dismissal of the charges against Anderson was ordered by Lt. Gen. Archie J. Olds Jr., commander of the 13th Air Force at March Air Base, Calif.

De Gaulle's Veto Challenges Western Alliance Strength

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

PARIS (AP)—The future of the Western Alliance may hinge on the question of who is tougher—youthful President Kennedy or the aging but durable enigma of Europe, President Charles de Gaulle.

The world likely will be witnessing two cold wars within the big one—in the East between the Soviet Union and Red China, in the West between the United States and De Gaulle's France.

SEVERE BLOW

Britain's lost battle to join the European Common Market will have repercussions around the world. Obviously it is a severe though not necessarily fatal blow to the Western unity for which statesmen labored patiently over the past dozen years.

There will be cheering in the Kremlin and probably a Soviet attempt to take quick advantage of the breach in the Western front. The Soviet response may take the form of an aggressive new peace offensive, with seemingly genuine gestures on ranking problems, to make it appear that Europe can do business safely with the Communists.

De Gaulle has made clear that he believes Europe should be a force standing between the United States and the Soviet Union, independently wielding its own nuclear weaponry, even though he has no nuclear weapons to wield yet.

POOR PARTNER

He has made France into a poor partner in NATO—hardly a partner at all. Since France is an important piece of European real estate, De Gaulle's policies already have weakened the Atlantic Alliance.

De Gaulle also has declared Britain unfit to be considered a part of Europe. He champions "continentalism," a continent looking inward, paternally guided and directed by its powerful heart—France and Germany.

A spokesman reflecting the French president's views says

British Prime Minister Macmillan chose the United States instead of Europe by agreeing to President Kennedy's proposal to arm Britain and France with Polaris missiles. This, to De Gaulle's way of thinking, was accepting U.S. domination to the detriment of Europe.

De Gaulle will remain president of France at least until 1966 if his health holds out. Although 72, he looks Hale and hearty. For another three years, therefore, the United States must deal with situations created by his policy.

He has struck a hard blow at the concept of European unity and Atlantic partnership which is the core of President Kennedy's world policy. In Europe, diplomats ask: Can De Gaulle get away with it?

OPTIMISTIC ON STEEL IN '63

NEW YORK (AP)—Roger M. Blough, board chairman of U. S. Steel Corp., says he is mildly optimistic that major steel companies and union employees won't go to the bargaining mat this spring.

But if they do, U. S. Steel will present an argument against increasing wages—shrunken 1962 earnings that hit a 10-year low.

Blough gave his views on prospects for dickering with the United Steel Workers after the nation's No. 1 steelmaker reported that profits dipped to $163.9 million last year from $190.2 million in lackluster 1961.

"MORE UNDERSTANDING"

Molly Picon Defies Age By Turning Cartwheels

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
AP Newsfeatures Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The way to turn cartwheels at 60 with the agility of a 10-year-old is not to stop turning them when you're 20, 30, 40, or 50.

That is actress Molly Picon's philosophy about growing older, and it applies not only to physical gymnastics but mental ones as well.

On the street, at her corner grocery, or at the stagedoor after matinees women old enough to have remembered Molly when she was star of the Yiddish theater on the lower East Side 43 years ago ask admiringly, "How do you do it, Molly?"

While they refer to her gazelle-like leaps and ferris-wheel spins along the footlights of her current Broadway musical, they also survey enviously her ingenuous figure and her mobile face, young with animation.

If she has more time, and the occasion warrants it, ageless Molly will elaborate on the cartwheel answer. For the wasted capabilities of many women in their middle years is a subject close to her heart.

LONELY YEARS

With grown families and busy husbands, they often become literally sick with loneliness and idleness, Molly knows. Some lose themselves to reality with the television sets. And many lose their figures via automobile and automatic household equipment.

"So why do you ask me to buy you a new TV and car?" jokes her husband, business manager, playwright and producer Jacob Kalich.

"Yonkers, you don't have to buy me a new body yet!" retorts petite Molly. Despite her calisthenics onstage, she walks the hour-long route to the theater each day, and on weekends at their country home takes part in some vigorous gardening activity.

"If your muscles stay used to it, they don't know they shouldn't just because they're older."

"If your muscles get lazy, you should expect them to complain."

MENTAL EXERCISE

The same can be said for mental muscles, insists Molly. Of course, she's been lucky, "never bored a day of my life." And she admits that the average middle-aged woman does not have her good fortune of having a career to fill the gaps of being needed.

"But nobody should grow stale. If a woman's family is grown, maybe that's the time she should take on other people's. If she is feeling sorry for herself, all she has to do is volunteer for some welfare organizations and she'll find her own troubles are small compared to others."

"No matter how limited a woman's talents are, she can be useful, as she can feel fulfilled."

GRANDMA'S WORDS

Molly's and Jacob's fulfillment came with the adoption and education of three European refugee children, with postwar and years of entertaining in Jewish internment and concentration camps.

HAMBURGER IS STILL BEST BUY

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Hamburger is still the best buy at the meat counter, advises a man who ought to know.

A butcher 50 years, Henry Clint Bennett will retire soon after serving factory workers, famous personalities and New York commuters in Fairfield County.

"Meat is very high, but it is possible still to cut the food budget," he says. "Breast of veal and lamb and beef plate have too much waste, but a pound of hamburger will assure you of four large or six small patties. Or a meat loaf."

You can live high off the hog, cow or lamb, however, by taking advantage of good meat buys in season, learning to use leftovers, and understanding meat cuts, he points out.

COOKING TIPS

"The first cut of chuck can be cooked in the oven like roast beef. This is true too for the lean bread-and-butter cut from the shoulder called cross rib or arm roast. Broiled flank steak is delicious all solid meat. Pork is cheap in winter. Lamb is a good buy in spring. Beef liver is always a bargain. Chicken always helps balance off the meat budget," he says.

Bennett began butchering at 15 years of age when butchers made their own sausage, hot dogs and baloney.

"But price really isn't a big item as it was in the olden days when my father-in-law threatened to close his butcher shop because the price of beef carcass went from six to nine cents a pound," he says.

Gennett, an army cook in World War II, claims his late wife, a domestic science teacher, was a good cook.

LAZY COOKS

"But women don't go to much trouble anymore," he says, "some prefer ready-cooked or frozen dinners and do not know how to prepare leftovers."

Some of his customers managed to save on their meat bills by returning the meat after they'd

DESIGN LAGS IN FURNITURE

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

International Design awards for

1963 presented by the American Institute of Interior Designers indicates that good design still lags in the furniture field.

Out of 53 winning designs, five were for furniture, two of those by Americans: A traditional chest designed by Henry Sheehan is French walnut with an antique finish and a contemporary sofa by Jules Heumann, with a walnut and aluminum base, covered in black top-grain leather.

THE OLD DAYS—But today's meat doesn't have that old-time flavor. They don't grow cattle to maturity — two or three years — as in the olden days. They are too eager, taking them at about 18 months, growing them faster and bigger, but that's all."

Talk about the cholesterol content of meat hasn't cut into sales.

People buy it as usual, then ask to have the fat removed. "Our only lean days were dur-eaten a little. A woman who shops for price rather than quality can get stuck. He explains:

"Some butchers buy a cattle carload, getting only a few good pieces out of maybe 30 head. Wholesalers save the quality meat for butchers who must have it, and give lower grade meat to 'prime' butchers."

Difference, though, between "prime" and "choice" beef is negligible — one man's opinion, the grader's, he emphasizes.

He piled a butcher wagon through these hills until 1943, when more people had cars and could get to the market, he says.

VARIETY IN FABRICS

But as designers have stressed, strides are made in other areas

when there are no new furniture forms or improvements on old ones. Fabrics and floor and wall coverings awards show that there is impetus in other directions. A great variety of fabric designs — from iridescent Tiffany glass effects to printed vinyl upholstery — won honors.

Soft and hard surface floor coverings continue to exhibit exciting colors and motifs. Designers Natalie Marcus and Rhoda Bright, well known in the hard floor covering field, shared honors, each winning two of four awards, which included a patterned cane fused in vinyl; and a pebble design in vinyl.

ACCESORIES UPGRADED

We are getting farther away from junk designs in decorative accessories, thanks to upgrading all along the line. Chic and ingenious designs are found in everything from wall hangings of hand-woven tapestry to tableware of black porcelain. There are Swedish nonslip serving trays and Finnish stackable bottles in different sizes and shapes.

Student Influenced By Harpsichordist

HOPEWELL, N. J. (AP) — Christopher Bannister's favorite music as a high school student was the singing of Frankie Laine.

A chance encounter with a recording by Wanda Landowska, famed harpsichordist, changed his taste and his life.

Bannister, now 25, not only learned to play the harpsichord but today is one of the eight manufacturers of the instrument in this country.

The harpsichord, forerunner of the piano, is enjoying a resurgence of popularity. Bannister is turning out a series of small harpsichords made to sell for less than $100. He says a full scale harpsichord sells for as much as $6,000.

18-YEAR-OLD VOTE

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Kentucky is one of the few states where 18-year-olds are allowed to vote. They have been voting since the May primaries of 1956.

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — The West Virginia Department of Agriculture sent a questionnaire to farm families which take part in a program of providing overnight accommodations to hunters and fishermen.

One question was, "How many sportsmen did you accommodate on your farm last year?"

To this one woman replied,

"None, only hunters."

Note to new cooks: Keep white as well as black pepper on hand. Use the white pepper in a light-colored dish when you don't want grains of black pepper to show.

the eight prize-winning designs in this field is to Keith Wells and Dan Stuart for a collection of bath towels and bath rugs, including snowflake and Northern lights patterns.

Other designs were by European designers, principally Swedish and Danish. An award for lighting went to a Finnish designer for a multi-purpose collection of opal glass lamps.

Awards were given also in research and development, and one award to an original work of art, a wall mural employing an ink.
